

A Cuyahoga County Master Gardener Continuing Education Program

Rust Belt Becomes Green Belt

Agriculture in Cleveland Bus Tour

Marie Barni & Jacqueline Kowalski in cooperation with the Continuing Education Committee

Tuesday, July 24, 2012	Tour One	1:00 - 4:00 p.m.
Education Credits 3.0	Tour Two	5:30 - 8:30

Both tours will start from City View Shopping Center, 7800 Transportation Boulevard, Garfield Heights, OH (located at I-480, Exit 21). Parking will be available in front of the former Walmart with a security watch.

Guests and friends are welcome on both tours.

This is your opportunity to learn about farming in the city - there are over 215 community gardens and over 36 for profit farms. This will be a bus tour visiting Stanard Farm, Kinsman Farm, Ohio City Farm, Chateau Hough, and Tremont Farmers Market. Samples of local foods will be served on the bus and you will be provided additional information on farming in Cleveland and how Master Gardeners can play a significant role in this movement.

Registrations must be received by Tuesday, July 17. We are limited to 52 people for each tour. Cost is $7.50 or Bonus Bucks. Thank you.

Pay online at <http://www.cuyahogamg.org/EducationStore>. To pay by check complete and return the registration blank below.
