Montgomery County MASTER GARDENER VOLUNTEERS

PETER J. HATCH

The Director of Gardens and Grounds Emeritus for the Thomas Jefferson Foundation will present two programs on Thomas Jefferson's Monticello on June 11, 2015.

Mr. Hatch was responsible for the maintenance, interpretation and restoration of the 2,400-acre historic landscape from 1977-2012. In 1987, he initiated the Thomas Jefferson Center for Historic Plants.

Mr. Hatch managed important restoration projects such as an 8-acre vegetable garden and The Grove, an ornamental forest of 18 acres. He lives and gardens in Albemarle County, Virginia and is a sought-after consultant and lecturer.

What a great opportunity to experience history and learn from the gardener of one of America's most famous gardens!
