

Secrest Arboretum

Master Gardener Volunteer Days

May 5-6, 2016

All Master Gardener volunteers are invited to attend! Secrest Arboretum is located on the campus of the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center. Participants will have the opportunity to learn from experts in the horticultural field and help make Secrest a better place.

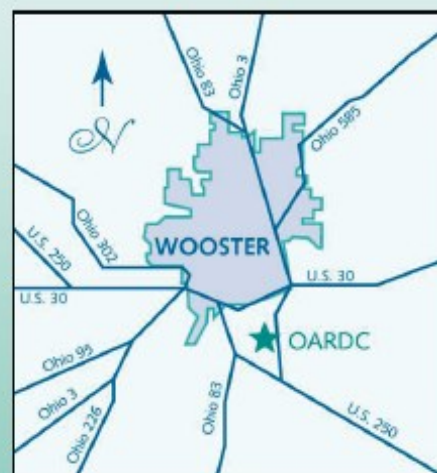

Thursday May 5, 12-4:00 & Friday May 6, 8-3:00

Enjoy one or both days!

Cost: No charge for this program.

Food and lodging not included.

- Experience the gardens as only a gardener can - your hands on the plants and in the soil.
- Walk the gardens casually or with the experts on Educational walkabouts.
- Learn from Secrest experts
- Share work, learning and dining with MGVs from around Ohio.
- Earn education credit hours and volunteer hours.

Secrest Arboretum is located on The Ohio State University Wooster Campus, Ohio Agriculture Research and Development Center, OARDC. Visit: secrest.osu.edu
